Direct: 412-338-9308 x-284 • Email: miller@gyf.com

Emily has more than six years of experience in public accounting. She specializes in providing assurance services for a variety of clients including manufacturers and not-for-profit organizations. She also has expertise in performing audits of defined contribution employee benefit plans.

Emily earned her Bachelor of Science degree with a double major in Accounting and Finance, graduating magna cum laude from Grove City College in 2015. Following graduation, she joined Grossman Yanak & Ford LLP, where she previously served as a summer intern.

A certified public accountant (CPA) licensed in the state of Pennsylvania, Emily is a member of the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants (PICPA) and Pittsburgh Young Professionals (PYP). She serves as treasurer for Metro Pittsburgh Youth for Christ and is on the Finance Committee for Primary Care Health Services, Inc., a Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC) headquartered in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

In 2022, Emily graduated from Leadership Washington County, a leadership development program that empowers individuals to lead themselves, others, and their communities while developing a professional network of local business leaders. The program creates leaders who work to improve the community and positively influence others beyond their roles as employees.

A member of Crossroads Church in Oakdale, Emily serves as the Chair of the Finance Committee and enjoys volunteering on the worship team there, which she has done for more than 12 years.

Emily and her husband, Ian, reside in McDonald.
